3. Match the words to the definitions.

Discrimination

To think you know something about someone or who they are.

Racism

Whether someone feels like a man, a woman, both, or neither.

Gender

Unfair treatment of different people, especially because of their race, gender, or disability.

Prejudice

When people are treated unfairly because of the colour of their skin.

Perceive

Having an opinion or idea about someone without knowing them.

4. Look at this photo. Write down what you think you know about this person from the photo.

Think about her job, her family, where she is from...

Extensions

1. Imagine Balraj has written to you asking for help after people were racist towards him. Write a letter back to him explaining who he could tell and what would happen next.

2. Imagine a world where everyone was exactly the same. What would it be like? Would it be interesting? You can draw it or write down some ideas.

3. Design an animal that you think will be perceived positively based on how it looks OR design an animal that you think will be perceived negatively based on how it looks.
